

23rd International Colloquium on the Dynamics of Explosions and Reactive Systems

July 24-29, 2011
Irvine, California USA

Author Instructions

The submission deadline is Dec. 15, 2010. Authors will be notified of the status of submissions by March 27, 2011.

The deadline for revised, extended abstracts is May 4, 2011. Extended abstracts of accepted contributions will be published in the Proceedings of the 23rd ICDERS in CD-ROM format. Short abstracts (submitted via the on-line author form) will be included in the 23rd ICDERS Program booklet. Below are guidelines for the preparation of extended abstracts.

Authors wishing to submit papers presented at the 23rd ICDERS to journals for publication may find further details by linking to the ICDERS page at <http://www.icders.org/>.

General Formatting Instructions for ICDERS Extended Abstracts follow. Please use the Template provided in the Template-icders2011word.doc or .docx to prepare your extended abstract and then convert it to a .pdf file for submission!

Title of Extended Abstract Using 18 Point Times Roman

Boldface Type and Initial Capitals

Author Name

Organization

City, State/Province, Country

Page Length

The length of each paper, including the text, figures, tables, and references should be at least 4 pages and may not exceed a maximum of 6 formatted pages. Papers should be prepared in a single-column format. Single-space all text material, including references, table titles, and figure captions.

Margins

Template margins and text area are set so printed abstracts fit best to the 8"1/2 - 11" US standard page format and should not be changed.

Type

The suggested type style (font) is Times new Roman. The suggested type size is 12 point; type size should be no smaller than 10 point.

Electronic Submission

Submit your extended abstract of 4-6 pages in length including tables and figures. Authors should prepare and submit extended abstracts in Adobe Acrobat .pdf format whenever possible. Please embed all fonts (select this option when converting file to PDF) in your document. Microsoft Word is also an acceptable format with file size less than 5MB; all graphics must be embedded (do not link), either within the text or at the end of the paper. Please use the first-author last name and the paper number to name your file (pdf or doc) (i.e. "firstauthorlastname-papernumber.pdf"). Do not use the name of the conference in the filename.

Your extended abstract should be uploaded through the paper submission website at

<http://icders11.confmaster.net>
